Careerpilot

Are you an outgoing person who likes talking to people? Do you like the idea of helping people resolve their problems? Can you stay polite and pleasant even when dealing with difficult situations?

Any company that deals with the public needs a customer service department to answer customers' questions and address any problems they are having. You could be advising or guiding people over the phone, via email or face to face.

Every business needs people in customer services so there are job roles available in lots of industries.

WHERE TO GET SUPPORT

Jess is our Work Coach, she is at Green Labyrinth every Tuesday and her job is to help you find work, decide what career you'd like to do when you're older and make sure you are developing the skills you need for the workplace. You can get support from Jess by, emailing her on jcook@greenlabyrinth.uk, booking an appointment with Jess by asking your tutor or attending the weekly Careers Drop in which happens on a Tuesday from 12pm-1pm.
